This is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on April 19, 2005.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-41 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record failed to provide the claimed features of a remote merchant customer database having a first plurality of customer transaction account records; a process server for appending a provider processing instruction to at least one of said first plurality of customer transaction account records to produce a merchant processing request data file; and a process server for receiving said merchant processing request data file, said process server configured to compare data consistency between said first database of information and said merchant processing request data file to produce a first comparison data file, said first comparison data file comprising a first record including a compilation of said merchant processing request data files accepted for processing by said process server, said first comparison data file further comprising a second record including a compilation of said merchant processing request data files rejected for processing by said process server further configured to at least one of update said first database information in accordance with said provider processing instruction, wherein said provider processing instruction is appended to said merchant processing request data file and synchronize said first database with said merchant processing request data file. These claims feature being present in all the independent claims render claims 1-41 allowable over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
